Discover Montevideo

Plaza Independencia

Montevideo's main square, is located right on the border between Ciudad Vieja and Downtown.

Around it are the most important buildings in the city: Executive Tower (Presidency), Estevez Palace, Salvo Palace, Rinaldi Palace, and Torres García Museum, among others.

Old City

Numerous museums, companies, ministries, state offices, art galleries, banks, cultural centers, shops of various kinds, and excellent restaurants.

Rambla

Avenue of 22 km of extension that borders the coast of the Río de la Plata throughout the entire city of Montevideo.

Teatro Solís

The most emblematic and oldest theater in Uruguay. Ask at the Front Desk for courtesy tickets for works of the National Comedy (subject to availability).

Mercado del Puerto

Gastronomic and cultural walk with numerous restaurants that serve, among other specialties, the typical Uruguayan dish: roast beef.

City center

This neighborhood revolves around its main avenue, 18 de Julio, where hundreds of businesses of all kinds are located.
